This Week's Focus

- Math: This week we finished up session 3; long division. We had a short quiz on Thursday, and did a fun partner math scavenger hunt on Friday.
- Language Arts: We started unit 2, and our literary skill of the week was sequence of events. The students also wrapped up their first writing assignment; personal narrative.
- Social Studies/Science: The students continued working with Mr. Flint.

Next Week's Focus

- Math: We will start unit 4; What That Portion? The students will identify, fractional parts of a whole or of a group.
- Language Arts: We will continue working with sequence of events.
- Social Studies/ Science: We will be in social studies for the next two weeks learning about the first colonies.
